Writing log #3

I liked watching today's video. I liked how one of the kids were narrating the story. I also liked how the kids built their own pitch to play. Lastly, I liked how the whole town went to watch them play. As you can see, I liked the video today.

Writing Log #24

I think field trips are good for many reasons. First, our field trips give us exercise. Second, these trips open us up to new activities. Rich and Jon would never have learned to ski without these trips. Also, it gives us time to be together and learn about each other. Finally, it gives us something to look forward to at the end of the week. For these reasons, I think we should keep these field trips going.

Portfolio Reflection #15 - Writing Logs 3 vs. 24

There is a very noticeable difference between Writing Log #3 (beginning of the year) and Writing Log #24 (end of the year). I have grown my writing a lot this past year just because I have been writing. Even though the topics are completely different, they show something about me. Writing Log #3 is about a video we watched, and you will notice that I didn't write any sentences that explain what I said, so it's a very short paragraph. For Writing Log #24, I write more about why I like the field trips, then I explain a little bit about one of them. It's a much better paragraph. In conclusion, Writing Log #3 is very different from Writing Log #24.
